An error in the writing of the obituary of the late Grandma Wertman, caused the article to appear ten years late in quoting the various places of residence of the Wertman family. The deceased was born on January 31st, 1823, and died in West Brooklyn, Nov. 24th, 1913. On August 20th, 1849, she was married to John C. Wertman and the family moved to Dixon in the fall. The husband died July 3, 1864, and was buried July 4th. In the spring of 1870 the mother moved with her family to Melugin's Grove, where she lived until 1876, when she moved to West Brooklyn where she has since resided. Those who have saved the obituary as originally published, will have a more correct reading for future reference by adding this postscript to the original as this correction has the revised dates of the various changes during her life history.

Louis Hoerner was in town on business Friday afternoon.

Dementtewn

The quickest way to end the Mexican rumpus would be to send down a battalion of reckless American chauffeurs, joy riders, etc. They'd soon have all Mexico jumping sideways and Generals Hooroota (as we heard him called the other day), Carranza, Hot Tomalie and the rest of them would be seeking the tall and uncut in unceremonious haste.

The Dementtewn philosopher has opined that the reason they say "the quick and the dead" is that if you aren't quick you can't keep from under the wheels of some of our maniac auto and motorcycle drivers, and the result is you are dead.

A fellow in the west end pulled a good stunt the other day. It entitled him to the head of the absent minded class. He arrived at work and set down the tea kettle half filled with hot water that he had been carrying in his hand. A friend asked him, after he had started to work, what he intended to do with the tea kettle. When he discovered he had brought the tea kettle instead of his dinner bucket the manhood in him asserted itself and he started in abusing his poor, absent wife for putting the kettle where she usually puts his dinner pail. He says all things look alike to him.

He reminds us of the absent minded professor who came in late at night, put his umbrella carefully in bed and then went out and stood behind the door.

This Brown shoe factory stuff in the papers is getting to read like Thanksgiving turkey tasted on the fifth day. A little fresh dope would be acceptable.

A queen bee lays from two to three thousand eggs in 24 hours. The man who will discover how to cross a queen bee with a hen will soon have money enough to buy an automobile for himself and all his poor relations.

Cheap and Easily Made, But Ends a Cough Quickly

How to Make the Very Best Cough Remedy at Home. Fully Guaranteed.

This pint of cough syrup is easily made at home and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It relieves obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—quickly, and is splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, spasmodic croup and hoarseness.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. "Tastes good."

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is a most valuable extract, rich in quinine and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this mixture, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful combination has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FORECLOSURE SALE.

Public notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court in and for the County of Lee and State of Illinois made and entered on the 22d day of October, 1913, in a certain cause therein pending wherein Rosa Jordan, Administratrix of the Estate of Michael Jordan, deceased, is complainant and George B. Stitzer and others are defendants: Foreclosure No. 3047 the undersigned Master in Chancery of said Court will, on Saturday, the 17th day of January 1914, at the hour of nine o'clock in the forenoon, at the north door of the Court House in the City of Dixon in said county, sell at public vendue to the highest and best bidder for cash in hand, the following described premises, to-wit:

All that part lying south of the south boundary of the right of way of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company, of the Southwest Quarter of Section Fifteen (15), in Township Twenty-one, North, Range Eight (8) East of the Fourth Principal Meridian, in the County of Lee and State of Illinois, excepting however the right of way and grounds conveyed to the Lee County Railway Company.

Or so much thereof as may be sufficient to realize the amount found by said decree to be due complainant, principal, interest, costs of suit and expenses of sale and which may be sold separately without material injury to the parties interested.

Dated at Dixon, Ills., this 8th day of December, A. D. 1913.

REASON IN THE ARGUMENT

When You Come to Think of It, Child Seemed to Have the Right of the Controversy.

At certain seasons a little Sunday school class in New York is visited by a vestryman in the church, who is afflicted with a terrible air of episcoposomposity. He came one day and quizzed the scholars upon their lessons, and at the end of every question he paused as if to say, "Ah-ha! You don't know that!"

"And now," he demanded, "what is the sixth commandment?"

No one answered. The episcoposompos vestryman turned to the teacher and convicted her with a ponderous "A-ha!"

"Come," he said, "what commandment did Cain break? What commandment was it that he broke when he killed Abel? Can't anyone tell me?"

One scholar beckoned the teacher to her. The teacher listened to the whispered confidence.

"What does the child say?" demanded the vestryman. "If one child knows the answer to that simple question, let me hear it."

"The child says, sir," answered the teacher, not without some trepidation, "that there weren't any commandments when Cain killed Abel."—New York Evening Post.

King's Grapevine

The great vine at Hampton court palace is a slip off one at Valentines, near Wainstead, which was planted in 1758. Owing to its roots having penetrated the bed of the river, which is only 60 feet from the end of the vinehouse, the Hampton court vine grew with extraordinary rapidity. In 1800—20 years after it was planted—its main branch was 114 feet long.

Now its branches cover a space of 2,300 square feet, but the principal branch only stretches 90 feet—the length of the vinehouse. Had the house been enlarged the vine would probably cover four times as much space. As it is, the vines at Cumberland lodge, Manresa house, Roehampton and Sillwood park, Sunninghill, surpass it; while the one at Kinnel house, Broadbalk—the largest in Great Britain—covers nearly twice as great a superficial area.

No Conspirator Is Recognized as Such Unless This Qualification Is O. K. —Mexican Situation From Humorous View Point.

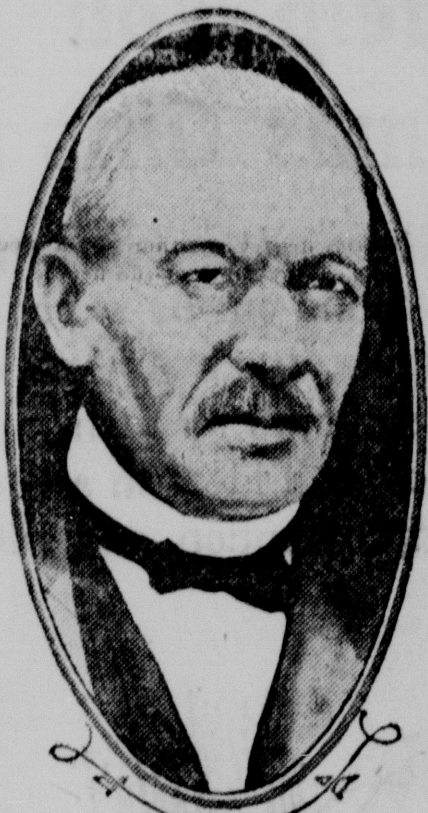

(The life of a correspondent in Mexico City is not what it is cracked up to be. War correspondent and Mexican correspondent are synonymous. Despite the fact that a Mexican correspondent never knows at just what moment he is liable to be "thirty-three," which means being fired out of the country, after an unpleasant and dangerous experience in Mexican jails, a Mexico City correspondent has been able to see the humor of the situation as it exists today in the turbulent Latin-American republic.—Editor's Note.)

Mexico City.—The first thing a Mexican does when he becomes a conspirator, or joins a rebel junta, or apprentices himself to learn the trade of banditry, or gets into the Plotters' union, is to supply himself with incriminating documents. No conspirator against the provisional government of Citizen Gen. Don Victoriano Huerta, presidente interino constitutional of the United States of Mexico, is recognized as a plotter in good standing unless he carries "them papers" on his person.

When a man is initiated into a circle of Carrancista or Zapatista or Vazquista or some other "ista" conspirators, he takes a terrible oath never to reveal the secrets of the order, even though he be put to slow torture. Then signs and passwords are given him and a large bunch of incriminating documents is confided to his care. The "documents" may differ in detail, but they always contain the names and addresses of all the conspirators and a full expose of their nefarious plans and projects, with diagrams.

All the conspirators carry these documents in their breast pockets when they wear coats, and in the pistol pockets of their trousers when they don't. Sometimes—but this is very rare—they leave the incriminating documents in their office desks or lying on their bureaux at home.

Some of the members of the chamber of deputies who were arrested by order of President Huerta October 10 for conspiracy against his government carelessly left their incriminating documents in their desks in the chamber, instead of carrying them in their pockets, according to custom, thus putting the secret police to a great deal of unnecessary trouble to get the papers.

President Huerta called all the members of the diplomatic corps to the national palace and told them in an aggrieved tone how those tell-tale papers had been found in the deputies' desks by the police. He really was very angry about it, for, as he and everyone knows, it is the correct thing in the best plotting circles to carry such papers on the person, where the secret police can get at them without vexatious delay and trouble. There can be little doubt that the imprisoned deputies will get much severer sentences than they would have received had they not maliciously sought to annoy the police and cause delay by leaving these incriminating documents in their desks, instead of carrying them to jail, where they could have been found without trouble when the deputies were searched.

There are instances of record where suspected plotters have mysteriously disappeared and their relatives have known them no more, but in all such cases the missing ones invariably were careful to leave their incriminating documents where the police could find them without trouble, thus making it pleasanter for all. Sometimes the incriminating documents are found neatly tied up with the last will and testament of the departed. Sometimes they are hidden, but the police are wonderful experts at finding them. Relatives and friends will search a room for hours, not leaving a square inch unexplored, and discover nothing whatsoever, not even a scrap of writing. Then the police will come and glance carelessly around and, presto, in the shake of a lamb's tail they discover enough incriminating documents to paper the room itself.

IMPROVEMENT BOND ISSUE.

The city commissioners will soon announce a special election for an issue of many thousands of dollars worth of bonds, the money to be used in the brick paving work that is to be carried on extensively here next year. If the necessary money is secured. When the time comes for the voters of Dixon to vote on the question, if they give the proposition careful thought, there is but one way for them to vote, and that is in favor of the question.

Dixon has made more progress in the line of sprucing up and improving the appearance of her alleys, streets, etc., in the last year than she has in many years, and it is a wonderful improvement.

There are still many streets that are an absolute disgrace to any self-respecting city and that make our otherwise beautiful town the laughing stock and place to be avoided by users of conveyances that have to use the streets.

The commissioners have a big paving program on for next summer and they should receive every possible encouragement. If they never do another thing they have built monument already in the pavement put in this summer.

KEEPING SOUND AND NORMAL

Too Many Neglect the Wonderful Machine Which Constitutes the Human Body.

You never saw a clock that didn't need rewinding, a machine which wouldn't break down, a lamp that did not require refilling. Experience has taught you when to use the key, when to look for lost screws and bolts, and what oil will produce the most light with the least waste.

It's surprising how careful we are with the things upon which we depend for comfort, and the tools on which we rely for our livelihood. But how about the most important piece of machinery under the stars—that body of yours? It's far more delicate than the most intricate mechanical device, much more sensitive. A marvelous affair, strung with minute nerves, crossed and criss-crossed with tiny feed and drain pipes, equipped with a furnace, storage stations, little warehouses to hold emergency supply—in fact, it is a manufacturing plant with more departments than you'd ever imagine, and every one of them needing constant attention. You are as healthy and capable as you are sound and normal.

If you exercise half the care in your body-keeping that you do in your housekeeping there is no telling how long you'll live or how comfortable you can be. Every pain, every ache, is a little warning—one of nature's alarm signs telling you that something is out of order, one of the little wires tangled or a pipe is choked up. Your boilers may need a good cleaning. You have put improper fuel into our furnace, and it is either generating too much warmth or too little.—Woman's World.

INTERESTING SPOT OF LONDON

Whispering Gallery of St. Paul's Cathedral Has Many Things to Interest the Visitor to the City.

The famous whispering gallery of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, is reached by a flight of 200 steps from the library. This gallery, which is about 210 feet above the cathedral floor, is noted for a curious echo, and is so named because a whisper uttered near the wall on one side of it is distinctly audible to a person standing on the other side, a distance of 108 feet in a straight line. From this point a good view is obtained of the church interior, the tessellated pavement of which looks like a minute chessboard, but it is liable to cause giddiness to anyone not used to heights. It also commands the best view of Thornhill's paintings and of the cathedral generally. From the whispering gallery 118 steps lead up to the stone gallery, an outer gallery with a stone parapet running round the base of the dome. Here in the clear sky of early morning may often be obtained a wonderful view of London.

don, a view which is still more extensive from the golden gallery above the dome. From this point the lantern may be ascended by a spiral staircase to the golden ball, where six persons may stand at once.

ANIMAL THAT NEVER DRINKS

Not a Drop Ever Passes the Brazilian Porcupine's Lips—Lives on Bark and Leaves.

An animal that never drinks has arrived in London. Undoubtedly it is the first and only one, and all London is rushing to see it. Naturally such a curiosity is confined in the zoo.

"Wot a hun'appy beast it is! No wonder its bristles stick out like that," remarks a man who has just drawn the back of his hand across his mouth. "E do look drier than me Sunday 'at," assented his companion.

Temperance advocates use the newcomer to point a moral and adorn a tale. "Behold the lesson that he teacheth! Never a drop passes his lips. Would that there were men in London that could say as much!"

It remains to be seen whether this Brazilian tree porcupine will take to drink now that he has been separated from his South American habitat and brought to the gloomy and chill purlieus of London. If he does demand drink, what will he choose? Maybe some of the curious visitors will surreptitiously ply him with a little ale or gin or some other London beverage to see its effect upon an animal that has never had a drop of anything to drink.

In his native Brazil this animal feeds upon the bark and leaves of trees, and the natives are very fond of its flesh. It has a prehensile tail,

MUCH VALUE IN DISCONTENT

Writer Finds Fault With the Celebrated Advice That Was Given by Benjamin Franklin.

"Don't keep your expenses down to your income. Bring your income up to your expenses. If you manage to live on what you make, you will never be spurred to better performances." This is the advice given by a San Francisco man who has made good. And why not? It seems heresy, but it is not, when you come to think it over. Take the clerk on $1,200 or $1,800 a year. If he is one of those carefully restrained men, keeping not only his expenses but his wants well within his meager income, he will remain a clerk all his life; die with that same income in his old age. The man who has wants beyond his income to gratify, if he has any merit in him, will hustle to bring in the dollars that he needs. Maybe he does not actually wish to live on a better scale than he is living, but wishes to save for investment or for a rainy day. He must lift his revenue or live a hand-to-mouth existence, or run into debt beyond his ability to pay. He becomes ambitious and more industrious, more ingenious, an abler man all round. They say that contentment is better than riches, but contentment is a brake on progress. It is the discontented men who bestir themselves to get what they hanker for, and usually get it.—A. H. D., in the San Francisco News-Letter.

The German Empire.

Since 1871 all the states of Germany form an "external union for the protection of the realm and the care of the welfare of the German people." For legislative purposes, under the emperor as head, are two houses of assembly, the upper house of the federated states, representing the individual states, and the lower house, or "Reichstag." The former corresponds very closely to our senate, while the latter resembles our house of representatives. Germany, while theoretically a monarchy, is in substance and practice as democratic a country as there is on earth. The emperor knows very well that it is no longer by "divine right," but by the right of the people that he sits at the head.

THIEF'S HAUL $30 IN PILLS

Highwaymen Make Unfortunate "Catch" When They Hold Up Medicine Peddler.

Atlanta, Ga.—Thirty dollars' worth of pills and an old land book showing grants which were made in Georgia in the days of Oglethorpe lay in the bottom of Giddings Johnson's one-horse chaise as he jogged along after dark into the suburbs of Atlanta.

He was thinking in a dejected way of the trials of a medicine peddler, when Madge, the ambling horse, shied as though she felt a returning youthfulness. Then, from out of the dark, stepped four figures, and four voices directed Giddings to hold up his hands.

Four highwaymen began at once to search the one-horse-shay, while Madge lapsing back into her usual drowse, stood with her head between her knees.

One of the highwaymen exclaimed with pleasure as he lifted a heavy, square object from the chaise and dropped upon his knees before it in the roadway; yet, what he opened to the moon were land grants which were a relic of Oglethorpe, and were old when Georgia, as a state, was young.

But his displeasure was lost in the delight of another of the bold robbers who was dragging from the chaise a heavy box. He set it down in the dust of the road. The highwayman upon his knees rose hurriedly, the other two crowded about, and eagerly they looked on, the moon shining palely upon them as the box was opened.

They might have been treasure seekers, remnants of a pirate gang, or just what they were.

The lid of the box ripped, a part of it tore loose. The remainder of the lid was pried off, and the four bold robbers, the moon shining palely upon them, bent forward and in the wan light looked upon the treasure of $30 worth of pills.

"Let's shoot him," suggested one with a look toward Giddings Johnson.

"Why not make him take all the pills?" advised another.

But a third, with that sixth sense peculiar to real highwaymen, heard the far-off approach of a vehicle, spoke in brief, sharp words to the others, and all four melted into the shadows of the night.

Dramatic Notes

THE DIVORCE QUESTION.

Wm. Anthony McGuire will present The Divorce Question, by Wm. Anthony McGuire, at the Dixon opera house Thursday evening, Dec. 18. The success of this play at McVickers in Chicago, where 125 performances were given, proves the merit of the attraction and gives ample evidence that the public wants a serious play, one that will benefit them educationally and give the moral code of the public an opportunity to reflect on the evil of divorce and its misery.

The Divorce Question ably portrays many of the sad conditions arising from the numerous divorces of today, the author believing in remedial legislation and in the play he graphically illustrates his contentions in a gripping story holding the auditor spellbound and teaching a lesson not soon forgotten.

FAMILY THEATRE

The new bill at the Family last night pleased and the pictures are always good. Moon & Phillip appear in a musical sketch and Frank Rangetta, in novelty barrel stunts was a feature. His work is original and shows much skill, an act that is worth while. Pictures tonight: In the Wilds of Africa, two reels, and The Simple Life.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Wednesday night the Princess will give a treat. The management announces that he has secured a wonderful three reel feature, The Heart of Kathleen, a photo play costing a fortune to make, so nobody should miss it. It is a story of the Loyal Sons of Erin against the sword of mighty Britain, interwoven with a beautiful love story.

CHIHUAHUA TRAP
FEARED BY VILLA

With Rebel Forces Scattered Huerta Troops May Sever Base.

ADVANCE FROM TORREON

Juarez Constitutionalists Urge Their Leader to Modify Course—Rear Admiral Fletcher is Lauded by Dictator.

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 16.—While rebel headquarters in Juarez was sending urgent messages to Gen. Francisco Villa, the rebel commander at Chihuahua, telling him he was incurring the displeasure of foreign countries in his actions toward the Spaniards and other foreigners and asking him to modify his attitude, General Villa himself was said to be seriously concerned over renewed federal activity.

Reports were that federal forces were advancing toward Chihuahua from Torreon while Villa's forces were scattered in his effort to surround the federals at Ojinaga, on the border, and to garrison Juarez and Chihuahua.

U. S. Making Inquiry.

Although Villa was selling their goods, which he confiscated, the situation at Chihuahua on account of the protest of Spaniards against their expulsion was less critical.

It was understood arrangements had been made for sending an official inquiry into the seizures from the American government to Villa through Consul Fletcher.

Word came that Luis Terrazas, Jr., for whose release from prison an appeal was sent to Secretary of State Bryan, had granted $250,000 in forced loans to Villa.

Bryan Gives U. S. View.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Announcement that Spain was disposed to commit the safeguarding of its interests in Mexico to the United States elicited no formal comment at the state department. It was explained, however, that efforts were being made to urge the constitutionalists not to discriminate against Spaniards or any foreigners.

No instructions to Consul Fletcher beyond those sent Saturday have been dispatched. The telegram to Mr. Fletcher, Mr. Bryan said, instructed the consul to urge on the rebel chiefs that no summary action be taken with reference to Luis Terrazas, Jr.

The following message was received by the navy department from Rear Admiral Fletcher at Tampico:

"Business resumed and normal conditions in Tampico and vicinity. Water renewed. No indications of further disturbance. Cannot return refugees to Tampico until weather moderates."

Rebels Lose 1,000 at Tampico.

City of Mexico, Dec. 16.—The rebel loss in the battle between federals and constitutionalists at Tampico is estimated at 1,000 men.

The Imperial quotes an anonymous banker as saying the Mexican government has obtained a loan of $10,000,000 from English capitalists.

Huerta became a dictator without restraint for a second time. Congress, which had given him a clean bill of health for his assumption of power and re-granted him the authority he assumed, adjourned until April 2.

Battle Believed Near.

Ojinaga, Mex., Dec. 16.—Only Americans with special passes were permitted to cross into Mexico because of the closing-in of rebel forces and the prospect of an attack on General Mercede's 4,000 federal troops in Ojinaga. Whether a battle or a prolonged siege lies ahead is impossible to tell.

Fletcher Pleases Huerta.

Mexico City, Dec. 16.—Expressions of appreciation were uttered by President Huerta to Charge O'Shaughnessy, during a casual meeting between the president and the American charge, for the part taken by Admiral Fletcher in directly preventing the destruction of property worth many millions by the rebels during the last week's siege of Tampico. When O'Shaughnessy asked Huerta if he could consider these utterances as official the president replied in the negative.

BATTLESHIPS ARE HOME

F. L. Chapin of the Wyoming Is Critically Ill.

New York, Dec. 16.—The end of the Mediterranean cruise of United States battleships brought to New York nearly 5,000 officers and men glad to be home again with a pay day in sight, and with a chance to spend the Christmas holidays ashore.

The super-dreadnought Wyoming, flagship of Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, and the battleships Arkansas, Utah and Florida were returning ships, which were awaited here by the dreadnought North Dakota, also of the first division.

When the super-dreadnought Wyoming docked at the Brooklyn navy yard her commander, Capt. F. L. Chapin, dying from Bright's disease, was taken to the naval hospital.

Lawyer Falls Ten Stories.

New York, Dec. 16.—Devere Hall, described as a lawyer of Detroit, leaped or fell ten stories to his death from a room in the Hotel Marie Antoinette. He was about sixty years old. The body was found by servants in a courtyard.

EVANGELIST STILL DRAWS BIG CROWDS

WEST-FIRE REVIVALS ARE OF GREAT INTEREST TO CITIZENS.

There was a fine attendance last night at the revival services at the Brethren church. The evangelist struck the keynote. Success, one of the most coveted things in the world was his subject. As biblical examples of those whose lives had been successful were cited Abraham, Moses, Joshua, David and Nehemiah of the old testament and Peter, Paul and Christ of the new testament. The fast drivers, the speaker observed, are going into the ditch. Peter on the night of Christ's trial and Moses going into exile looked like dismal failures. View from after life they were successes. Men with a fixed purpose and dogged determination succeed. As men now view heroism and greatness even the immortal Alexander wouldn't compare with such men as Booth, Spurgeon and Moody who lived to save and elevate others rather than to conquer and destroy. Rev. West gave tactful and suggestive thoughts in spelling the word, S for instance might stand for sand, one of the essentials of success. Suggestive of ballast, grit, polish, taking the edge off of difficulty. He said, the chick that can't pip the shell never goes to market. U, the unique man, different from the crowd; men of the Moses type who would rather live in the lives of living men than moulder in the clothes of an Egyptian mummy. Successful men lead, following the crowd forfeits the crown. CC, men of double vision, a double chance to win. The world puts a premium on men who see things. Successful men are men of vision rather than luck. E, men of energy, the essential in successful following vision. Energy puts force in life. The kick of a mule without energy would be harmless. There is no hindrance of environment, nor lack of opportunity to men of energy. He strongly appealed to men to endow their efforts with energy. Finally the SS represented sticktoitiveness, and smiles. Even though you have a poor hold stick to it until you get a better one. No man can drift to success when the tide is the other way. Smiles are the perfume of success. There are no homely people among those who smile. It's bad taste to succeed and not smile. Success smiles away the chains of dullness and don't care. Christianity gives color to life, and no life succeeds like the christian life.

While virtue is its own reward, Christianity gives hope of life beyond the grave. Eternal joy is far more to be courted than earthly success.

The subject tonight will be "Christ Seeking Sinners." Miss Fike will deliver some special music.

WIDE CHOICE IN BUTTONS

Odd Shapes and Colorings Have Been Designed to Suit the Costumes Now Worn.

The new buttons are in odd shapes and colorings. Squares, hexagons, pyramid effects, barrel, platter, olive, bathtub and pear shapes are the novelties. Besides these unusual shapes there are still the ball and half ball buttons.

Some very striking novelties are in black glass or crystal with mosaic designs in Chinese colorings. These unusual effects are accomplished by means of carving, and by painting the designs underneath the crystal. Dainty floral designs are done the same way. These Chinese colorings are even more strikingly emphasized in the semiball buttons, some of which are half one color and half another, while others are divided into as many as four sections, each of which is in a different color. Rich burnt orange tones are frequently used.

Some handsome porcelain buttons are painted in Persian and mosaic effects. Among the extremely new effects in porcelain and crystal are the fruit buttons in realistic shapes and colorings. Apples, pears, cherries, etc., are so perfectly designed as to render them readily recognizable.

KEEPING CLEAR OF STAINS

Water Into Which Peeled Potatoes Have Been Cooked Is One of the Most Effective Helps.

Isn't it annoying to find that a spot of grease or a fruit stain has been dropped on the front of a new blouse or dress? On silks and delicate scarfs these marks can generally be removed by this simple method, which I don't suppose you've heard of before. Grate two large peeled potatoes into a basin of cold water, and at the end of half an hour strain and put the potatoes into another bowl of water. Then when the sediment has quite settled rub or sponge the affected part with the liquor.

Grease spots should be treated with a paste made with fullers' earth mixed with two-thirds of water and one-third of ammonia. Placing blotting paper under the stain, spread the paste on thickly, and leave for 24 hours, then brush it off.

Canals of the World.

China has led the world in the matter of canal making, and to this day stands first among the nations for the skillful utilization of her inland waterways. One great canal maintains communication between Peking and Canton, a distance of 1,200 miles, and the total extent of the canals of China is more than 5,000 miles. Russia owns the longest canal in the world, extending from St. Petersburg to the Chinese frontier, a distance of 4,472 miles, and also the second longest, covering 1,434 miles between Astrachan and St. Petersburg. As regards numbers of separate canals, Holland claims precedence, but her total mileage of inland waterways is only 930

TOY TO PLEASE THE BABY

Amusing Little Trinket That Will Keep the Little One Amused for Many Hours.

Bright colors, and anything that jingles upon being shaken, always appeals to quite a small baby, and we give a sketch of a little toy that was a great success, and was made with the aid of a silver bangle, some brightly colored remnants of ribbon, and some little bells. Suitable little bells, should we not already possess them, may be purchased for a trifle at any toy shop, and those of the nature that are so often seen upon a cat's collar or upon children's reins are perhaps the best to procure.

Each bell is attached to a small loop of narrow ribbon, the ends of which are tied tightly on to the bangle in a smart little bow.

A glance at the sketch will explain all this, and all the bells should be tied on to one side of the bangle so that baby may clutch the other side in his little hand and shake it as vigorously as he pleases. Ribbon of a good kind with fast dye, and the brightest possible reds, blues, yellows and greens, should be selected for the making of this little toy, and if the bangle is brightly polished also it will make it doubly attractive to baby.

WIDE CHOICE IN BUTTONS

Odd Shapes and Colorings Have Been Designed to Suit the Costumes Now Worn.

The new buttons are in odd shapes and colorings. Squares, hexagons, pyramid effects, barrel, platter, olive, bathtub and pear shapes are the novelties. Besides these unusual shapes there are still the ball and half ball buttons.

Some very striking novelties are in black glass or crystal with mosaic designs in Chinese colorings. These unusual effects are accomplished by means of carving, and by painting the designs underneath the crystal. Dainty floral designs are done the same way. These Chinese colorings are even more strikingly emphasized in the semiball buttons, some of which are half one color and half another, while others are divided into as many as four sections, each of which is in a different color. Rich burnt orange tones are frequently used.

Some handsome porcelain buttons are painted in Persian and mosaic effects. Among the extremely new effects in porcelain and crystal are the fruit buttons in realistic shapes and colorings. Apples, pears, cherries, etc., are so perfectly designed as to render them readily recognizable.

KEEPING CLEAR OF STAINS

Water Into Which Peeled Potatoes Have Been Cooked Is One of the Most Effective Helps.

Isn't it annoying to find that a spot of grease or a fruit stain has been dropped on the front of a new blouse or dress? On silks and delicate scarfs these marks can generally be removed by this simple method, which I don't suppose you've heard of before. Grate two large peeled potatoes into a basin of cold water, and at the end of half an hour strain and put the potatoes into another bowl of water. Then when the sediment has quite settled rub or sponge the affected part with the liquor.

Grease spots should be treated with a paste made with fullers' earth mixed with two-thirds of water and one-third of ammonia. Placing blotting paper under the stain, spread the paste on thickly, and leave for 24 hours, then brush it off.

WOMEN USE TORCH; LOSS IS $400,000

Militants Set Fire to Lumber Yard in England to Avenge Louder.

POLICE STATION IS STORMED

Suffragettes Break Every Window in Building Occupied by Officers and Burn Mansion—Miss Emerson Hurt.

London, Dec. 16.—The suffragists arson squad fired a lumber yard at Devonport and destroyed property worth over $400,000. The lumber yards and considerable adjoining property were fire swept before the blaze was under control.

Quantities of suffragette literature and placards bearing the words "Revenge for the arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst," were found scattered about.

The scene of the fire is the spot where "General" Flora Drummond and other militants awaited Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst on her arrival in England from the United States on December 4, when the suffragette leader was arrested.

Bristol Mansion Burned. An empty mansion near Bristol was burned by the arson squad. Another party broke every window in the Richmond police station.

The militants appealed straight to King George on behalf of Mrs. Pankhurst. At the weekly meeting of the Women's Social and Political Union the president announced that the following telegram had been sent to the king:

"In your majesty's name a noble woman is being done to death in Hollowell jail. We call upon your majesty to stop this crime before it is too late."

Zelle Emerson Injured. Miss Zelle Emerson, the American suffragette, was brought before the police court charged with disturbing the peace in the Bow district of the East end of London. She appeared in the prisoners' inclosure with one arm in a sling. It had been badly wrenched in the scuffle with the police.

The police testified that Miss Emerson had smashed a policeman's helmet with the pole of a banner she was carrying. The magistrate remanded her for a week on bail, after she had promised to keep the peace until after the conclusion of the case.

Sylvia Pankhurst, since her arrest on December 10, has added a "no sleep strike" to her "hunger and thirst strike" in order to force the prison authorities to release her. She accomplished this by walking continually. Her condition is already aggravated and her friends expect her release shortly.

SHIP FRAM TO THE POLE

Amundsen Can't Wait to Pass Through Canal.

Copenhagen, Dec. 16.—Amundsen's ship, the Fram, will not be the first vessel to pass through the Panama canal, as has been planned. The vessel has been lying at Colon for three months, awaiting the opportunity to pass through the canal, but it cannot wait any longer. Amundsen has cabled ordering the Fram to leave as soon as possible by way of Cape Horn or San Francisco, where he is to join the ship. The Fram starts for the pole in the spring. Amundsen will reach America from Europe in January.

Lava Spreads Over Villages in Ambrym, New Hebrides.

Melbourne, Australia, Dec. 16.—Dispatches from Noumea, capital of the French colony of New Caledonia, report that great destruction has been wrought by a volcanic eruption in Ambrym island of the New Hebrides group.

No casualties are reported among the white population, whose numbers are small, but it is feared that many natives in the interior perished.

JACK JOHNSON IS PELTED

Pugilist Beaten by Wrestler and Vegetables Are Thrown.

Paris, Dec. 16.—Jack Johnson was pelted with a great variety of stale vegetables after his defeat by the Scotch wrestler, Jimmy Esson, at the Nouveau Cirque. Esson won an easy victory over the negro pugilist at catch-as-catch-can. In the beginning of the second round Esson threw Johnson whose shoulders hit the mat almost immediately.

6 DIE IN HOTEL FIRE

Others May Have Perished in Cincinnati Blaze.

Home Owned by the Salvation Army Attacked by Flames and Baseball Player Is Hero.

Cincinnati, Dec. 16.—Six men are known to be dead, one woman and two children are missing and thought to have perished and one man was fatally injured in a fire which swept the Salvation Army hotel for men on Freeman avenue here.

Scores were overcome by smoke, but it is believed that only eight of these cases are serious. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Among the heroes of the fire was Wally Mayer, a ball player on the Chicago American league team, who discovered the blaze, gave the alarm, and, at the risk of his life, rescued eight children who were imperiled by smoke.

The fire was in a thickly populated tenement district and hundreds of exciting rescues were made by firemen and volunteers. Owing to the thick smoke the firemen were unable to make an exact search of all the buildings in the block and grave fears are entertained that other bodies may yet be found.

CAPITAL STOCK INCREASES

Hidden Motive Suspected Behind Action of Illinois Corporations.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 16.—Big corporations in Illinois have paid the state $200,000 in fees in payment for increase of capital stock aggregating approximately $200,000,000 since September 1. The normal business in this line at the office of the secretary of state would have been about $25,000. This condition was disclosed by a statement issued from the office of Secretary of State Harry Woods, by his chief assistant, Albert E. Isley. Mr. Isley makes the accusation that the purpose of the corporations is traceable directly to the fact that the new public utilities act will become effective January 1. The Isley statement is one of the surface indications that business men, state administration leaders, and politicians are aroused over the possibilities of the new law.

ROUGH GAVE LIFE IN VAIN

Girl Saved by Skin from Newsboy's Crippled Leg Suffers Relapse.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 16.—Miss Ethel Smith, for whom Billy Rugh, the crippled newsboy, laid down his life, has suffered a relapse and is at the Gary general hospital. Miss Smith lost her power of locomotion a few days ago because of a partial failure of the first skin grafting operation. A new operation was performed. In August, 1912, Miss Smith was burned about the body. Billy Rugh saved her life when he allowed his twisted leg to be amputated. A short time later he caught cold and died.

MANN SEES PANIC IN U. S.

Representative Says Business Men Are Scared.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Asserting that the country was in the midst of a financial and industrial panic "owing to the incapacity of Democratic control and legislation," and that men in factories and financial institutions were "scared to death," Representative Mann of Chicago announced that he would address the house in a few days describing this situation in detail. Mr. Mann was commenting on remarks of Representative Heflin of Alabama about the price of cotton.

MONTANA WINS RISK SUIT

Insurance Companies May Get Back $1,500,000.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The national government may be compelled to refund $1,500,000 erroneously collected from insurance companies under the corporation tax law as "dividends," as the result of action by the supreme court. The right of the state of Montana to impose a tax upon premiums collected in that state by the New York Life Insurance company in the transaction of life insurance business was affirmed by the supreme court.

BILL WINS FIRST TEST

Leaders Predict Currency Act Will Pass.

Reed Says Senator Root Assailed by All Political Fortunes.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Passage by the senate of the Owen currency bill was assured when amendments to two of the most important sections of the measure were defeated by the administration forces.

A substitute for section 2 and an amendment offered by Senator Hitchcock were defeated on almost unbroken party lines. Senator Hitchcock alone voting with the Republican opposition in the first instance and Senator Lane joining him in the second.

The substitute, which proposed four and possibly eight regional banks, with the stock owned by the public, was defeated, 40 to 35, practically insuring the adoption of the Owen plan of from eight to twelve regional banks.

The amendment, which would have given government control of federal reserve banks by authorizing the central board to name five of the nine directors, was beaten, 39 to 36, making virtually certain the adoption of the Owen plan to leave control of the regional banks in the hands of the member banks composing them.

When the Hitchcock substitute had been tabled Senator Reed vigorously defended the Owen bill in reply to Senator Root, who attacked the measure and called Secretary Bryan "the dominating influence" behind the proposed new currency system.

Senator Hitchcock made a sharp attack on the proposed control of the regional reserve banks by the banking interests of the country.

Senator Reed insisted Senator Root's premises were entirely wrong and said no inflation of the currency could result from the new law because of the restraining influence of the federal reserve board.

Chairman Owen of the banking committee challenged Senator Root's statement that the gold of America would be drained out when foreign nations unloaded American securities. The European financial industries, he said, were as anxious to keep conditions stable in this country as in Europe, and in 1907 America was able to draw large quantities of gold from Europe. He declared the "strictures heaped upon this bill by the senator from New York" were "unfair, unjust and unreasonable."

JAILS HORSES FOR REVENGE

Widow Imprisons Animals for Causing Death of Spouse.

Lafayette, Dec. 16.—An animal resembling a horse, yet lacking many equine characteristics, was led down Main street by a deputy sheriff and taken to a livery stable to be cared for by humane authorities. The seizure by humane authorities.

Fourteen years ago William H. Moore, a contractor, was killed in a runaway accident. His widow, Sarah Moore, said nobody should ever ride behind the animals again and that they should never leave the barn in which they were kept. One of the horses died two years ago. The other is still alive, but so emaciated and deformed from long confinement and lack of exercise that it looks very little like a horse. Never having been shod for 14 years, the hoofs, like nails, have kept growing until they are nearly a foot high. The horse's legs are thin and the animal is scarcely able to stand. The horse is practically blind from standing so long in darkness. The humane authorities have filed affidavits against Mrs. Moore and her son, charging them with cruelty to animals.

Holland Agree to Pact.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Secretary Bryan announced that Holland has agreed to enter into a "peace treaty" with the United States, similar to the six already in force between the United States and Latin-American republics. Portugal, Switzerland and Denmark are also considering signing like treaties.

PRESIDENT QUIT U. S. WAR ORDER

Asks Quiz of "Carabao" Dinner, Where Philippine Rule Was Ridiculed.

COURTS-MARTIAL MENACE

Song Containing Profane Epithet Against "Insurrectos" Arouses Anger of Wilson-Bryan Slur Is Resented.

SONG THAT ROUSED WILSON.

Damn, damn, damn the insurrectos, Cross-eyed, kackack ladrones, Underneath the starry flag, Civilize 'em with a Krag, And return us to our own beloved homes.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Angered by the ridicule of Secretary of State Bryan's peace program and at the song with the refrain, "Damn, damn, damn, the insurrectos," sung at the banquet of the Military Order of Carabao, President Wilson ordered that an investigation of the events at the dinner be made. Afterward he formally withdrew his acceptance of honorary membership in the order, which is composed of regular and volunteer officers of the army and navy who served in the Philippine islands during the four years succeeding the Spanish-American war.

Cabinet Members Attended.

Satires and travesties on the administration's policy toward the Philippines were portrayed at the banquet held in Washington last Thursday night. The affair was attended by Secretaries Redfield and Daniels, Postmaster General Burleson, Justices McKenna and Vandeventer and many members of congress and army and navy officers.

The demand for an investigation, with intimations from the White House that courts-martial and severe reprimands would not be surprising, caused a sensation in army and navy circles.

Wilson Expresses Wrath.

President Wilson called Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary of the Navy Daniels to the White House and directed them to make the investigation.

Secretary Daniels said: "I have been instructed by the president to ascertain the facts with reference to the banquet, for the purpose of determining whether the circumstances warrant a court-martial or a reprimand. I shall do nothing until I have obtained all the facts."

To Quit Order's Presidency.

The principal officers of the order are Maj. Gen. James Aleshire, quartermaster general of the army, and Rear Admiral Thomas Howard, U. S. N., who were the senior officers present. Admiral Howard was elected to the presidency of the order, succeeding General Aleshire, but has been advised by Secretary Daniels to decline the office.

The opinion of the president and his cabinet is that satires cannot be objected to when coming from persons not connected with the administration, but that to permit them to pass unnoticed when officers of military services are involved may be construed as a serious breach of discipline.

Song Sung for 13 Years.

Admiral Howard explained to Secretary Daniels that the song, "Damn, Damn, Damn the Insurrectos" had been sung at every banquet of the order in the last 13 years and that no official notice ever had been taken of it before. Secretary Daniels said, however, that officers of the army and navy were expected to support the policies of the administration, not ridicule them.

When the "battleships" satirizing Mr. Bryan's peace policy were borne to the feast by boys there was a nose-gay in the muzzle of each gun and a white dove on each fighting top.

Another satire was a moving picture of a three-year pursuit of a "Filipino" colonel, who time and again escaped capture, but soon after being apprehended was made governor of a province.

Dr. Joseph M. Heller, secretary of the Washington corral of the Carabao, issued a statement expressing regret in behalf of the order that any feature of the dinner had given offense.

GOOD BACKS FOR BAD

Dixon Residents Are Learning How To Exchange the Old Back for a Stronger One

Does your back ache, feel weak and painful?

Do you suffer headaches, languor and depression?

Is the urine discolored, passages irregular?

The kidneys may be calling for help.

Weak kidneys cannot do their work.

Give them the help they need.

To cure a kidney backache you must cure the kidneys.

Use a tested and proven kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.

Convincing proof of merits in Dixon endorsement:

Mrs. George Engel, 84 Lincoln Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me more good than any other kidney remedy I have ever used. I got this remedy at Leake Bros. Co's. Drug Store and after taking it, I no longer had pains in my back and my kidneys didn't trouble me. I shall always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the shame that Mrs. Engel had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

U. S. FOREIGN TRADE GROWS

Manufactured Goods Takes Lead Says Redfield's Report.

Washington, Dec. 16.—According to the annual report just issued by Secretary of Commerce Redfield, the foreign commerce of the United States during the past year increased more than $421,000,000 over the year of 1912.

Our foreign commerce has grown by leaps and bounds until during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, it reached the great total of $4,279,000,000 in value. Of this great sum $2,466,000,000 were exports and $1,813,000,000 were imports, showing a trade balance on these transactions in our favor of $653,000,000. Quite as important as the aggregate, however, are some of the details that go to make up the totals. Our exports of domestic manufactured goods of all kinds amounted to $1,507,000,000, or 63 per cent. of our total domestic exports.

CANAL AIDED BY DUNNE

Illinois Governor Favors Funds for Waterway.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—Governor Dunne told the Chicago Association of Commerce committee on rivers and harbors that he would seek deep waterway legislation as soon as federal cooperation was assured. The governor was the guest of the committee at luncheon at the Union League club.

"I favor the expenditure of the $20,000,000 bond issue for the development of a waterway from Lockport to Utica to connect the sanitary canal and the Illinois river as soon as a comprehensive scheme is approved by the federal government," said Governor Dunne. "I think it would be useless for the state to go ahead unless it is assured that congress is prepared to do its part in the digging of a lake-to-the-gulf waterway."

U. S. FOREIGN TRADE GROWS

Manufactured Goods Takes Lead Says Redfield's Report.

Washington, Dec. 16.—According to the annual report just issued by Secretary of Commerce Redfield, the foreign commerce of the United States during the past year increased more than $421,000,000 over the year of 1912.

Our foreign commerce has grown by leaps and bounds until during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, it reached the great total of $4,279,000,000 in value. Of this great sum $2,466,000,000 were exports and $1,815,000,000 were imports, showing a trade balance on these transactions in our favor of $653,000,000. Quite as important as the aggregate, however, are some of the details that go to make up the totals. Our exports of domestic manufactured goods of all kinds amounted to $1,507,000,000, or 63 per cent, of our total domestic exports.

CANAL AIDED BY DUNNE

Illinois Governor Favors Funds for Waterway.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—Governor Dunne told the Chicago Association of Commerce committee on rivers and harbors that he would seek deep waterway legislation as soon as federal cooperation was assured. The governor was the guest of the committee at luncheon at the Union League club.

"I favor the expenditure of the $20,000,000 bond issue for the development of a waterway from Lockport to Utica to connect the sanitary canal and the Illinois river as soon as a comprehensive scheme is approved by the federal government," said Governor Dunne. "I think it would be useless for the state to go ahead unless it is assured that congress is prepared to do its part in the digging of a lake-to-the-gulf waterway."
